EASTON YARD SALE

August Bank Holiday • Sunday 30 August 2026

Hello from your neighbours at the Easton Community Cupboard.

On the May Bank Holiday this year, more than 20 Easton households opened up for a village-wide yard sale, all on one map, organised by people who live here. Lots of you told us how to make the next one even better.

So we listened. This August, we're trialling an evening yard sale.

Why the evening? May was too hot: hard on little ones, dogs' paws, everyone. An evening is a cooler stroll at a gentler pace, and calmer on the roads than the morning car-boot rush, better for parking and for our neighbours.

Fancy selling from home? Let us know and we'll add your house to the map: one Google map of all the sellers, printed with a scan-to-view QR code and left around the village to pick up. You just set up at home on the day.

Or sell from the Rembrandt car park. We're after a few gazebo pitches there, free to park 4-8pm and well signposted. Keen? Tell us. No gazebo, we may be able to help.

Just want to shop? Maps go out one hour before the sale starts, from the ECC, Norfolk Food Hall and other spots. At the village hall: tabletop sales and a makers and creatives area, 4-8pm, with a tombola at 7pm.

One thing we'd love your steer on: the hall is fixed at 4-8pm, but home sellers aren't, so we could open the wider sale earlier. Would you prefer to start before 4pm?

Tell us by 30 June to help shape the rest. And if you came in May but haven't fed back yet, we'd still love to hear it.

Nothing's set in stone. We're shaping the day around what works for the village.

EASTON VILLAGE FUN DAY

August Bank Holiday • Monday 31 August 2026

The day after the yard sale, we'd love to bring the whole village together for an afternoon of fun, and we're still shaping it, so your ideas really do count.

-  Football and games on the field, for anyone who fancies joining in or cheering on
-  Live music and a talent show, for local performers to have a go
-  A makers and creatives area, to show off what people make
-  A scavenger hunt around the village
-  An art competition, theme "Connecting Easton". Entries on display and shared on our socials for voting through August
-  A street feast on Heron Way, open to the whole village, bring a dish and share a meal together
-  A maypole, if we can find the right spot and someone to lead it

Nothing here is fixed. We want to know what you'd enjoy, what you'd skip, and what we've not thought of.

Got ideas? Got time? Got a skill to share?

We'd love helpers, performers, makers, organisers, food and drink folk, and marshals. No experience needed, just a love for the village. And if there's something not listed that you'd like to take part in, organise or lead, get in touch and let's make it happen.
